Time, 1:38, 2:48, 51, 1:04.
Winner—Br. c, by The Friar—Lena (trained by W. Jennings).
Went to post at 3:00. At post 2 minutes. Start poor. Won easily; second the same. The race was a gift for Plantagenet, which got off well in motion and was eased up at the end. King B. liked the going, ran a good race and might have been closer to the winner had Waterbury ridden him out. Alhambra, off poorly, made up ground under a drive from the stretch turn and outlasted Drop o'Rye in the final sixteenth. The latter did not seem to be able to extend himself freely.

Scratched—38094 Heathsville, 107.
Overweights—Plantagenet, 3 pounds; Alhambra, 5; Show Girl, 4.
Plantagenet, show, out. King B., show, 8 to 5. Alhambra, show, 8 to 5. Drop o'Rye, show, out.

38182 SECOND RACE—5-8 Mile. $400 added. 3-year-olds and upward. Maidens. Allowances.

Time, 1:38, 2:52, 52¹, 1:05.
Winner—Br. f, by Falconer—Ebb Tide (trained by J. Sykes).
Went to post at 3:30. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Gannon rode a good race on the winner, avoided the early pace and picked his going. His mount finished fast through the stretch and catching Flo Russell tiring was going away at the end. John Nevin gained ground in the last furlong, but was all out and driving hard to beat Flo Russell. The latter is speedy, but a quitter. Fustian did not run to expectations and tired after going nearly three-eighths. Walbrook came fast on the stretch turn, but tired in the stretch.

Overweights—Fustian, 1 pound.
Stella W., show, 1 to 3. John Nevin, show, evens. Flo Russell, show, 1 to 3.

38183 THIRD RACE—About 2 Miles. $500 added. 4-year-olds and upward. Handicap. Steeplechase.

Time. 4:23²

Time, 4:23.
Winner—Gr. g, by Flatlands—Jacqueline (trained by G. Tompkins).
Went to post at 4:00. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Gum Honey was the best and could have won farther off. He had to be hustled to catch Lida Woodlands, but when he did was under restraint the rest of the way. Lida Woodlands was tiring fast at the end, but showed speed and fenced in good style. Arius put up a poor race for him. Decameron stumbled on the flat and unseated Pyle. He was going well at the time.

Scratched—36426 Walter Cleary, 159.
Gum Honey, show, out. Lida Woodlands, show, 3 to 5. Arius, show, out.

38184 FOURTH RACE—4 1-2 Furlongs. $500 added. 2-year-olds. Selling.

Time, 12, 25³, 51³, 59³.
Winner—B. c, by Lissak—Flitaway (trained by H. T. Griffin).
Went to post at 4:20. At post 1 minute. Start bad. Won driving; second easily. Listaway ran his race and scored a lucky victory as The Brown Monarch was easily the best today and should have won. He was practically left at the post, but made up ground gradually and caught Listaway when a furlong from home and headed him for a couple of strides, but tired and was outgamed in a hard ride to the finish. Lady Belair is probably not of much account.

Scratched—38055 Hoofbeat, 99.

38185 FIFTH RACE—3-4 Mile. 3-year-olds and upward. Selling. The Amateur Cup. $500 added. Gentlemen Riders.

Time, 1:38, 2:52, 52¹, 1:21.
Winner—Ch. f, by Chorister—Cinderella, by Hermit (trained by H. T. Griffin).
Went to post at 4:55. At post 1 minute. Start fair. Won easily; second the same. Musical Slipper got off poorly and was easily best, took the outside all the way and was only cantering at the end. Sir Christopher liked the going and displayed speed, but his weight anchored him in the stretch. Mark Cheek is high in flesh and short and tired badly. Concertina did not show much speed.

Scratched—38132 J. A. Warner, 152; 38108 True Blue, 152; 38072 Trapezist, 133.

Overweights—Musical Slipper, 1 pound.

No show betting on first three.

38186 SIXTH RACE—1 1-16 Miles. $500 added. 3-year-olds and upward. Maidens. Allowances.

Winner, B. f. by Albe. Best.

Time, 1:38, 27, 54, 1:20¹, 1:49, 1:56.
Winner—B. f, by Aloha—Gift, by Charaxus (trained by F. Rector).
Went to post at 5:20. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Alma Girl was well handled throughout, came fast in the stretch and Wilkerson rode a vigorous finish. Pearl Diver was slowly gaining at the end after being used too much wearing Charnel down and would have won in a few more strides. Benefit was hard ridden all the way and tired after going six furlongs. Charnel was made too much use of in the first part of the race and could not last the journey. Michaelmas ran well for three-quarters.

Overweights—Benefit, 1 pound; Charnel, 1; Michaelmas, 5.

Alma Girl, show, 7 to 10. Pearl Diver, show, 3 to 5. Benefit, show, 1 to 2.

*Apprentice allowance. Time, 24¹, 49¹, 1:16, 1:36¹.

Winner—Ch. h, by Golden Garter—Music (trained by J. Maloney).
Went to post at 2:31. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Alfred C. got off well and showing the most speed all the way was never in trouble. Pericles was interfered with at the start and was crowded against the fence and had to go all around the leaders to get up, was under a drive all of the last furlong and outgamed Nearest when the pinch came. The latter had no mishaps. Velasquez and Chappaqua tired after showing speed. Drummond can do better.

Scratched—38151 Flaneur, 99.

Overweights—Tom Kingsley, 2 pounds; Star Gazer, 3.

Alfred C., show, 7 to 10. Pericles, show, 3 to 5. Nearest, show, 2 to 5. Drummond, show, 1 to 2.

Winner—B. c, by Florist—Veronica (trained by C. E. Durnell).

Went to post at 3:01. At post 6 minutes. Start poor. Won easily; second the same. Dick Bernard was off running and showed the most speed throughout and was never in trouble. Molinos began slowly, broke from the extreme outside and closed a big gap, but tried to bear in when it came to a drive and Bullman had to stop riding to straighten him out at the furlong post. Beneficent ran well and outgamed Flo Bob in the final drive. The latter tired when called on. Manshak showed early speed.

Overweights—Flo Bob, 2 pounds.

 Dead heat, purse divided. Time, 2:54, 51 1/2, 1:17 1/2, 1:44 1/2, 1:51.
 Winners—Banter, ch. c. by Bassettlaw—Marsala (trained by C. E. Mahone). Floyd K., b. c. by Pontico—Onaetta (trained by S. C. Hildreth).
 Went to post at 4:05. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving hard. Banter was outrun for the first half and had to go all around the leaders to get up, but was going the strongest at the end and would have won in another stride. Floyd K. beat the barrier, but Donnelly took him back in the first half, then came through on the inside at the turn into the homestretch and fought it out strongly with Banter all through the last furlong. Rankin was used up setting the pace and tired in the stretch. Handspinner quit early.
 No show betting.

 Winner—Ch. c. by Ormus—Mamie R. (trained by J. G. Greener).
 Went to post at 4:38. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Postmaster Wright came fast through the stretch, caught the leaders tiring, finished resolutely and won drawing away. Alfio showed the most early speed and raced Betmuda to defeat, but tired in the last fifty yards. Betmuda ran well, but was used up in chasing Alfio, and was tiring at the end. Oronte and Wine Sap were never dangerous.

 Winner—B. h. by Bersan—Fable (trained by W. Nutt).
 Went to post at 5:09. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Barrack outclassed his field. Coburn kept him under restraint for the first half, wore the leaders down while rounding the far turn and came away in the stretch run. Coburn shook him up at the furlong post, but had him well in hand at the end. Cogswell ran well and finished very fast. Love's Labor showed the most early speed, but tired as if short. El Caney quit after going a half as also did Kingstelle.
 Cogswell, show, 1 to 3. Love's Labor, show, 3 to 5.

 Winner—B. f. by Governor Foraker—Queen Bird (trained by A. C. Ridey).
 Went to post at 2:15. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second handily. Dotterel worked a rough journey in good style, finished with a rush at the end and won going away. Bee Rosewater forced the pace from the start and when straightened for the wire appeared to have a long and apparently winning lead, but tired at the end. Alta G. came fast at the end. Guida tired and quit after going a half. Penance was going well at the end and was not excessively urged at any stage. Figardon made up much ground from a poor send-off.

 Winner—Ch. c. by Brutus—Golden Locks (trained by W. Fisher).
 Went to post at 2:44. At post 2 minutes. Start fair. Won pulling up; second easily. General Roberts beat the barrier and led unextended throughout, evidently far outclassed the field and is a coming good one. St. George Jr. finished very fast and ran in greatly improved form. Annie Marie was lucky, followed the winner's pace closely and held on well. Whoa Bill received careful handling from start to finish and appeared to be only cantering in the last furlong. Ethel Abbott closed a gap from a bad start.

 Went to post at 3:07. At post 2 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second easily. Sugden, away poorly, raced quickly into a contending position and finished fast, wearing Galanthus down at the end. The latter was lucky, drew to the front early and appeared a sure winner, but was swerving under a whipping finish in the last furlong. Johnny Mc-

Cartey steadily improved his position, closing up fast in the stretch. Lode Star apparently sulked at first and then made up fifteen lengths from the half in and wants a longer race. Albert Enright went well for six furlongs.

 Winner—B. g. by Exile—Meddle (trained by J. E. King).
 Went to post at 3:31. At post 1 minute. Start bad. Won pulling up; second driving. Disturber ran throughout under a pull and indulged the pacemaker to the far turn, where he went to the front and won hard held. Windward, nearly left, closed a tremendous gap. Rim Rock displayed improved speed and stamina. Learoyd was lucky and always had clear sailing and ran a good race. Mission quit after being prominent for six furlongs. Bathos is of no present account except in mud.

ST. LOUIS GOSSIP.

With horses arriving from all quarters daily and the inauguration of racing less than a week away, racing affairs are booming at St. Louis, and all concerned are looking forward to a busy and prosperous season. Of matters of interest in this connection the St. Louis Republic of yesterday says:

"McChesney may face the barrier in the Kinloch Inaugural. Manager Joseph Murphy received a telegram yesterday from "Boots" Durnell stating that the weights were satisfactory, and that he had wired E. E. Smathers, McChesney's owner, that he thought it would be advisable to ship the horse to Kinloch. After receiving the wire from Durnell Manager Murphy wired McChesney's owner asking him to bring the horse to St. Louis.

"Among the arrivals at the track yesterday were Turney Bros., who brought twenty head, including Maud Gonne and Glen Water; S. E. Parmer came with eight; R. F. Meyers brought ten to the track, P. M. Civill five, J. C. Cahn five, R. W. Marks seven and Gumberts & Powers seven.

"Manager Murphy yesterday gave out the following probable starters for the Inaugural: McChesney, Glen Water, Belvino, Flintlock, Wax Taper, Kenova, Benson Caldwell, Jena, Haviland, South Breeze, Death, Edgardo, Albert F. Dewey, Audiphone, Monos, Deutschland and Lady Jocelyn.

"The members of the Florissant Valley Whip and Spur Club met last night and they decided the riders in the gentlemen's races would draw lots for their horses. The first race of the meeting for gentlemen riders will be held next Thursday. The maximum weight will be 150 pounds and the distance will be six furlongs.

"W. W. Elliott got in with his string from Texas and is quartered with C. Schawacker. Elliott's horses are looking good and are nearly ready for the races. Of Schawacker's lot only Duella is ready now and she may be started at Kinloch.

"While the Fair Association is tearing down the fences of the steeplechase course, steeplechasing is to be featured at the Kinloch meeting. New jumps will be completed this week.

"Members of the Florissant Valley Whip and Spur Club are trying to persuade Manager Joseph Murphy to program a timber-topping race for their club. This organization will conduct the two races already carded for gentlemen riders.

"The Kinloch manager will resume an old custom this season. The owner of the successful horses will be paid immediately after the winner is weighed out. The money will be inclosed in satin painted purses, the workmanship of Mrs. Joseph Murphy, and hung on a wire suspended across the track.

"Among the arrivals at the track yesterday was J. Burrows, who arrived with his string, which has been campaigning at San Francisco during the winter. He feels confident that he will win the Kinloch Derby with Action. Burrows was accompanied east by his light-weight jockey, L. Wilson. This boy rode many winning races at San Francisco, and will be an acquisition to the boys who will ride here. Wilson has been engaged to ride Barney Schreiber's Deutschland in the Inaugural.

"Frank Carr's starting gate will be shipped to the track this week. This starting device will be given a thorough trial during the Kinloch meeting.

"A notable addition at the Fair Grounds yesterday was the string of Henry M. Zeigler, Cincinnati's ex-treasurer, who sold the great colt Hermis last summer for $15,000 to L. V. Bell of New York. The horses are in charge of Lee Christy, who in his day has trained some of the best horses that ever stood on iron, among them Freeland, Libretto, Valuable, Test, Lavinia Belle, Maid Marian and others. The horses came from Lexington direct and may race at St. Louis all summer.

"Some rapid work was witnessed at the Fair Grounds yesterday. The fastest move of the day and season was by R. N. Vestal's brown two-year-old filly Aransas Pass, by Gallantry. She reeled off half a mile in 50 seconds, running next to the rails, where the track had been rolled. This filly was secured from O. G. Parke at New Orleans, where she was a winner. Unfortunately, she is not engaged in any of the stakes for her age at the Fair Grounds."

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

The Seagram string, twenty-two strong, has arrived at Little York, Canada, in charge of trainer B. T. Littlefield. There are eight King's Platers in the lot, the only absentee being Eastern Prince. The string is composed as follows:

Foreign-breds.—Coburg, br. g. 6, by Himyar—Grace Lee.

Far Rockaway, ch. h. 5, by Faraday—Slipaway.

Gold Cure, ch. c. 4, by Goldfinch—Allanah. Dramatist, ch. c. 3, by Racine—Rosebud.

Merry England, ch. c. 3, by St. George—We Know It.

Pan Zagloba, ch. c. 3, by Faraday—Safety. Pan Lougin, gr. c. 3, by Faraday—Katy Did.

Healing Salve, b. f. 3, by Dr. MacBride—Faverel.

Retire, b. c. 3, by Juvenal—Curfew II. Canadian breds.—Fly-in-Amber, b. m. 5, by Prisoner—Glycera.

Elcho, b. g. 4, by Egmont—Bonnie Ino. Nitor, b. g. 4, by Saragossa—Glycera.

De Sarano, ch. g. 3, by Saragossa—Maiden Bold.

Ego Nosco, blk. g. 3, by Egmont—Bonnie Ino.

War Medal, b. f. 3, by Golden Badge—Athena III.

Safe Haven, ch. f. 3, by Morpheus—Alsatia. Perfect Dream, b. f. 3, by Morpheus—New Dance.

Two-year-olds.—Gold Stick, ch. c. 2, by Golden Badge—Bonnie Vic.

Conspiracy, b. f. 2, by Connoisseur—Mischievous Maker.

Signet Ring, ch. c. 2, by Ornament—We Know It.

Poppy Leaf, gr. f. 2, by Morpheus—Wreath. Chestnut colt, 2, by Faraday—The Squaw III.

Of the King's Plate entries it will be noticed that Eastern Prince is an absentee, but with eight others eligible the black and yellow jacket is still strong enough for all practical purposes. Three of the two-year-olds are home-bred, by Golden Badge, Connoisseur and Morpheus. The Ornament colt Signet Ring, another case of neat nomenclature, is a half brother to Merry England.

Two grey horses are in the lot, Pan Lougin and the Wreath, two-year-olds. The foreign bred horses of the older division suffered from a slight epidemic of pneumonia during the winter.

The outlook for a grand meeting at Nashville this spring was never brighter, and horsemen are of the opinion that it will excel from a racing standpoint any of its predecessors. Up to last season the association had striven hard to make the sport a paying investment, without results, but there was a turn in the tide, and persons who had never before seen a race course gave it their support, which demonstrated the popularity of the sport and encouraged the New Tennessee Breeders Association in offering more money to bring the best horses in the country there. The course has been improved considerably, thereby making it one of the best in the country. Five additional stables have been erected, giving the association 700 stalls on the inside of the park. The track has been placed in first class condition. At various points new soil has been placed on it, and today there is not a hole of any kind to be found. The clubhouse, grandstand, betting ring and fences have received a new coat of paint and many flowers have been set out on the lawns, giving the course a very artistic appearance.

Onatas, Mr. J. E. Madden's crack three-year-old, has been sold to Mr. E. R. Thomas of New York, a new comer on the turf. The price paid is not known, but it is generally believed to be a handsome one, as Onatas was, up to the present time, the favorite for the Kentucky Derby. Onatas will not start in the Kentucky Derby, according to the plans of his new owner, but will make his initial race this year in the Brooklyn or Suburban. If his performance justifies, he will be sent on for the American Derby. The colt will be shipped east at once. He is by Top Gallant—Sister Molly. Mr. Thomas is a son of the late General Samuel Thomas, of New York. Mr. Madden has also sold to H. Knapp, of New York City, a bay yearling colt by Sandringham—Benita Brush, sister of Ben Brush, winner of the Kentucky Derby in 1896. He also sold to J. James, of Windsor, Canada, the three-year-old Needful, by Mirthful—Nellie Osborne.

After thorough inspection by the contractors last Monday the new racetrack at Jamaica was officially declared ready for delivery to the Metropolitan Jockey Club on Monday. Racing could commence at the new track today. There is a grandstand of 6,000 capacity, a fieldstand of nearly 3,200 capacity, and an absolutely safe fast mile track equipped with a five-furlong and a six-furlong chute. All is in readiness for Superintendent James Murphy to receive the track on Monday, and the finishing touches for the opening, April 27, will be pushed forward. With the addition of the Jamaica track the Metropolitan Jockey Club has added a racing plant to the east which in many respects excels and in not a few equals other eastern racecourses. It is not of the magnificent proportions of several of the other prominent racing properties, but its size is ample, and in its confines there is compactly contained all the attributes of the most modern and approved comforts as well as necessities.

It is of particularly easy access by way of the Long Island Railroad and the Brooklyn surface and elevated railways, and in this respect the facilities are better than is found about many of the New York tracks.

The Bennings stewards last Tuesday continued the investigation of jockey J. Jones' accusation against W. Barrett, the trainer of Meistersinger, and it did not take them long to find all the evidence they needed. Their decision is that Barrett be denied all the privileges for the remainder of the meeting, and with this finding his case is passed up to the stewards of the Jockey Club for final action. This means practically a ruling off, for it is hard to see how there is to be any change in the finding after the matter is discussed at turf headquarters. The feeling among horsemen is that the affair will be a lesson to others, and if some more boys can be found with courage enough to come to the front and show up the tempters it will rid the turf of many unscrupulous owners.

Capt. S. S. Brown, of Pittsburg, has bought of Col. C. F. Clay, Paris, eight choice yearlings by Sir Dixon and other great sires, paying for them probably the best price paid for a similar bunch of yearlings in Kentucky at private sale in several years, the figures being quoted as $25,000. Year before last the Runnymede and Raceland yearlings averaged about $3,000, but last year they dropped down to $2,500, and on this account the Bourbon county turfman has decided to sell in Chicago. The brother to Blues and Blue Girl is not included in this number, but Capt. Brown has a deal on for this youngster at a fancy figure.

The preparations at Aqueduct this season are more elaborate than ever before. In fact, Superintendent Reilly has several surprises in store for the patrons and horsemen who visit Aqueduct Park. In addition to thoroughly renovating and painting the grandstand, clubhouse, stables and other appurtenances, a new elevated board "lawn" has been built, which slopes from the grandstand to the track rail. This space, immediately in front of the grandstand, is invariably referred to as the lawn. In England, where there are seldom more than three or four days racing to a meeting, a lawn is permissible, but in this country common sense has demanded that the grass in most instances gives way to a board, concrete or brick pavement. It is wood at Aqueduct, but until this season it was not inclined, so those who fringed against the rail were the only ones who could catch a glimpse of the finish of a race.

Renald, the four-year-old son of Salvatore—Scotch Fir, by Scottish Chief, which won the Spendthrift Stakes for J. B. Haggin last year, is now at the Kentucky Association track in the hands of John Stevens. Stevens says so far this spring he could not ask a horse to do better, and it is no secret that this colt is the Haggin hope for big eastern handicap honors. Mr. Haggin now has some sixteen horses in training in Stevens' care. The latest addition to the stable is the highly tried two-year-old filly of last year, Berylline, now a three-year-old. This daughter of Star Ruby was sent to Elmendorf Farm last year to go into the stud, but she has wintered so well that Manager Enright has decided to give her another chance on the track.

John E. Madden is going to train jumping horses on a different plan than has ever before been followed in this country. For this purpose he will establish a school for jumpers at his farm, Hamburg Place, and this season will see the beginning of his experiments. Madden will take big, awkward two-year-olds and give them a taste of the jumps as soon as they show that they do not have a turn of speed sufficient to make them big winners on the flat. Once they learn the jumping game they can be allowed to mature and then be schooled once more and sent out for the stakes. Thus they will be developed gradually and be healthy, sound animals instead of broken-down racers. The first product of the Madden system is Auto, a horse that will start in the east this year. He was a big colt and wanted to jump over the fences from the start. Since learning the game he has filled out until he is seventeen hands high and well muscled.

Jockey Henry has announced that he will ride for Durnell & Herz this year. They arrived at an understanding last Wednesday. Henry is to receive a retainer of $1,000 a month for his services.

COMMISSIONS ACCEPTED FROM $2.00 to $1,000.
